BACKGROUND

TRY Australia is a charitable organisation that was founded 130 years ago. TRY Australia's programs include: vocational programs for the long-term unemployed, literacy & numeracy educational programs, employment programs for the disadvantaged sector of the community, preschool education through our 30 preschools that provide affordable kindergarten and childcare plans which reflect the educational, cultural, and social values specific to each community in which we operate.

Try is managed by a Board of Management who have experience in finance and accounting, engineering, science, business, information technology, and legal services.

The RTO utilises their own staff based around the state working in their 30 preschools to assist them with developing and validating training and assessment.

The RTO plans to deliver training in the workplace at preschool centres that it runs. The training and assessment strategies describe delivery as a blend of modes including face to face, online and in the workplace.

The RTO's current scope of registration includes courses in business, early childhood, construction, hospitality, and training and assessment. The RTO is reviewing their scope of registration to better reflect their core business plan.

The RTO offers its training and services to its own employees predominately as a government funded provider.

This audit is to assess the provider's application to add the following qualifications / units to their scope of registration:

- SIT30713 Certificate III in Hospitality
- CHC50113 Diploma of Early Childhood Education and Care
- HLTAID001 Provide Cardiopulmonary resuscitation
- HLTAID003 Provide first aid
- HLTAID004 Provide an emergency first aid response in an education and care setting

The SIT30713 Certificate III in Hospitality was an equivalent unit to the previously held SIT30712 Certificate III in Hospitality and was placed on the provider's scope without an audit.

At the time of audit, the RTO had 53 students spread between the Certificate III in Early Childhood Education and Care, and the Diploma of Management.
